

WENNING TECHNICAL SERVICES PTY LTD

Artificial tracers are prepared in measured concentrations, and deployed to track movement of water in drainage systems. Tracers appearing in the environment are in low concentrations and generally innocuous.

FLOURESCCEIN: Photodecomposition (the destruction of dye by sunlight)

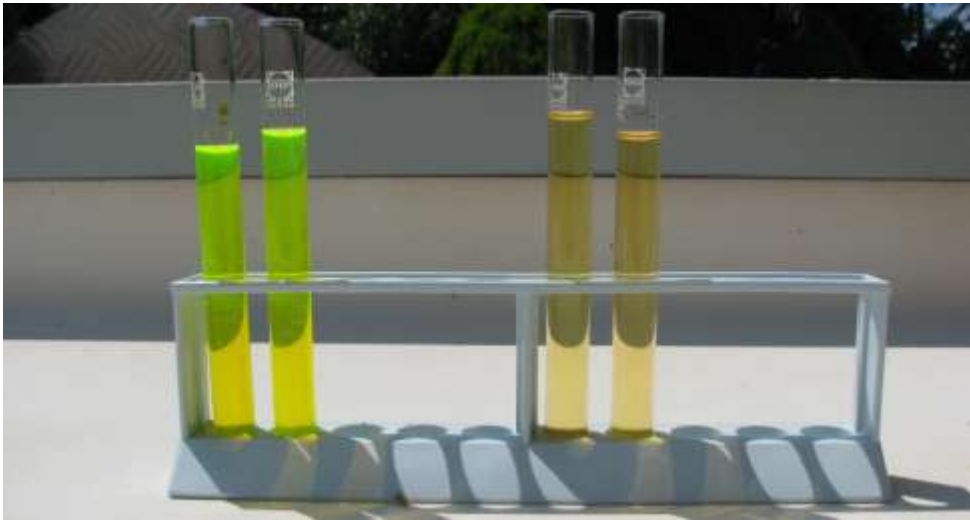

Figure 1 After 2 days in sunlight

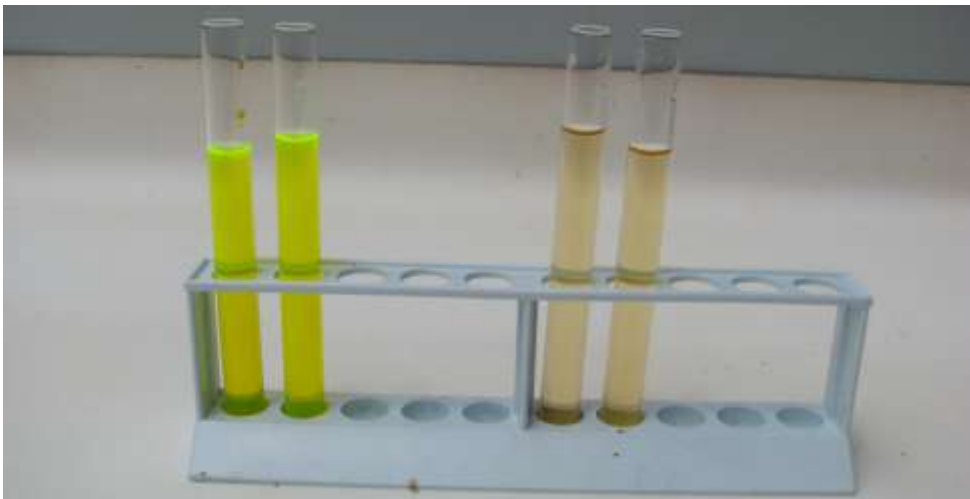

Figure 2 After 4 days in sunlight

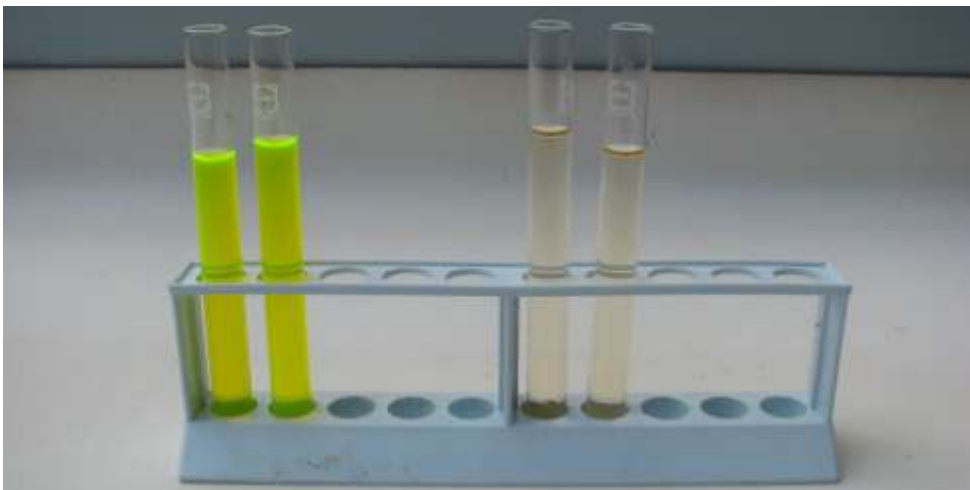

Figure 3 After 3 weeks in sunlight